Why Are We Here

Why are we here? - 'Tis to prepare

Our spirits for that realm on high
Where all that's pure, and bright and fair.

Shall bloom through all eternity

Why Are we here, that God above

Who rules omnipotent and just
Has kindled up his heavenly love

And shone around this earthly dust

That by his care and goodness we

May learn that far beyond the sky

The soul shall free from sorrow be

If we through faith prepare to die -

The flowers the leaves of summer time

The wildwood rose in forest glade
Are symbols bright when in their prime

That all of earth must surely die
They sweetly tell when they bloom

And when all withered dead they lie

They speak as sweetly from their tomb

That we are here to prepare to die
